KM International Adds International Distributor

Partnership allows Roadmender Asphalt to promote, sell equipment in the United Kingdom

NORTH BRANCH, MICH. – KM International, a leading manufacturer of pavement maintenance equipment, recently announced the addition of Roadmender Asphalt as its newest international equipment distributor.

Based in the city of Sheffield in South Yorkshire, England, Roadmender Asphalt will now promote, sell, and service KM International's entire equipment line in the United Kingdom as a result of the partnership.

KM International President Cliff Cameron said he is looking forward to seeing both companies benefit as a result of this agreement.

"We have always felt the UK market is a great opportunity to expand internationally and feel as if we have found the perfect partnership with Roadmender," he said.

With this new addition, KM International now has distributors in seven countries around the world.
